THE NORTHWEST

OFFICIAL PAPER OF HENRY COUNTY
NAPOLEON, O., OCT. 25, 1883.

To Delinquents.
There are a large number of subscribers to the DEMOCRATIC NORTHWEST who are in arrears to from two to ten years, and many a longer time than that. To these delinquents we extend a cordial invitation to call and settle. We need the money. It is a small matter to you individually, but, in the aggregate amounts to something of moment to us. We repeat it. WE NEED THE MONEY.

This thing must stop. Even Oberlin gave a Democratic majority.

THE Bryan Democrat favors the reelection of Senator Pendleton.

Ohio department of the G. A. R. has $184,000 in the State treasury.

JUDGE HOADLY has a clean majority of all the votes cast in the State.

Of the thirty-eight States twenty-six now have Democratic Governors.

The government of China is actively preparing to close the port of Canton.

THERE will be thirteen editors in the next Ohio Legislature—all Democrats.

THE Legislature of Washington Territory has granted the right of suffrage to women.

THE Democrats will have a majority of twenty-six on joint ballot in the Legislature.

It is thought that Gen. Hancock will be stationed at Chicago, and Gen. Pope at New York.

CHICAGO Times: The Ohio Republican exclamation! "Did you ever? Well, Hoadley ever."

OUT of over 25,000 Republicans of Hamilton county, only 8,000 voted for the Second Amendment.

THE Washington clerks will come home to vote just once more, and then they will come home to stay!

THE unkindest of all. The Republicans giving Foraker a complimentary vote for U. S. Senator.

THE Republicans can console themselves with the fact that they carried Iowa with a reduced majority.

JACKSON township, Auglaize county, takes the cake. Out of 453 votes cast, 444 were for Hoadly! That's a Jacksonian township sure.

DEMOCRATIC Wayne county gave a majority of 482 for the Second Amendment, and Republican Summit county gave a majority of 675 against it.

THE Tiffin Tribune takes it hard. It calls Gov. Hoadly the liquor seller's champion! If Hoadly is champion of anything he is the champion of the people.

ANNA DICKINSON's business manager run away leaving her in the lurch at Detroit on last Saturday. Anna, why not don't make attire and manage your own affairs, and then those horrid men can't take advantage of you.

THE official vote on Supreme Judge will not be canvassed until December. Then if Judge Owen does not resign until January, a Democrat will be appointed by Judge Hoadly to serve one year. That would be fair and very proper.—Defiance Dem.

AT the recent election the Democrats gain a Congressman in Iowa, electing Judge Cook from the 5th District to fill a vacancy caused by death. Judge Cook is an Ohio boy, some years ago having studied law in Tiffin with the Hon. W. P. Noble.

THERE will be elections in ten States on the 6th of November: Connecticut, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia. Governors will be elected in Massachusetts, Maryland, Minnesota and New Jersey.

Death of Gen. Steedman.

Gen. Jas. B. Steedman, after an illness of several weeks, died of pneumonia at his residence in Toledo on last Thursday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock. His funeral took place on Monday, being one of the largest funeral gatherings ever seen in Northwestern Ohio. He was buried with military honors, many of his old companions in arms being present. Quite a number of citizens of Napoleon and Henry county paid their last respects to "Old Chickamauga," and a former resident of this county, by being present at his funeral.

Gen. Steedman was born in Northumberland County, Penn., and learned the printer's trade in the office of the Lewistown Democrat. When only about twenty-one years old he moved to Napoleon, Henry County, Ohio, and for some years afterward divided his attention between railroad contracting and the publication of a country newspaper, taking positions at the same time as local political leader. He was one of the heavy contractors on the Wabash & Erie canal, also the Wabash railroad at the time of their construction. He was elected, as we learn from a biographical sketch in the Enquirer, twice successively to the lower branch of the Legislature, was a member of the State Board of Public works for four years, and was elected Public Printer at Washington in 1857. He was a Douglas man at the Charleston Convention, and made a canvass for Congress as an adherent of the "Little Giant," but was defeated. In 1861 General Steedman had become a resident of Toledo. He went into the war as Colonel of the Fourteenth Ohio Regiment, and made a brilliant career. To give any thing like a detailed account of his services in the war would be to simply reproduce matter which is easily accessible in books, and which is already in the keeping of those who would be interested in it. General Steedman rapidly progressed as a military commander, and in 1863 became a Major-General of volunteers for distinguished and gallant services on the field of Chickamauga. He was accredited the hero of that battle. At the time of that memorable encounter he was stationed at a bridge with orders to hold it at all hazards. Having no enemy in front of him, he left his orders to take care of themselves and proceeded to the support of General Thomas, who was severely pressed. He knew nothing of the country or the position of the armies, but by marching to the "sound of the cannon," skirmishing on the way, he found fighting ground, and soon became hotly engaged. His services proved to be of the greatest value to General Thomas. This was only one of Steedman's notable achievements in the war, but it was the one that gave him the proud and affectionately familiar title of "Old Chickamauga." After the war he made an official tour of inspection of the Freedmen's Bureau, and was for some time Collector of Internal Revenue at New Orleans. Later he served in the Ohio Senate, and was active in the politics of the State up to the time of his death. He was always consistently and earnestly a Democrat. As a soldier, politician and citizen he combined all the most admirable qualities. He was absolutely steadfast in his principles, and had a force of character which brought admiration even from those who were his political adversaries. He was a practical man of strong sense, and was as fearless and aggressive in politics as he was in war. He was also a disciplinarian, though the most striking event of his soldier life was his promotion to a Major-Generalship for disobedience to orders. He was generally the first to smooth out the wrinkles after a hot party wrangle, and always in the front when his party was in its greatest need. General Steedman was a big-brained, warm-hearted, generous man, distinguished as a soldier and politician, but even greater in those graces of manhood which commended him as a friend. Grief over his death will be deep indeed. No man was more deserving of friendship, and no man more substantially earned the praises which are accorded to our heroes.

The Result in the 33d Senatorial District.

The following is the official vote for State Senators in this, the 33d Senatorial District:

|         | Foraker | Hoadly |
|---------|---------|--------|
| Lucas   | 6,102   | 6,126  |
| Wood    | 4,105   | 4,088  |
| Fulton  | 3,883   | 3,865  |
| Putnam  | 1,903   | 1,916  |
| Hancock | 3,148   | 3,095  |
| Henry   | 1,713   | 1,676  |
| Total   | 19,754  | 19,469 |

By this it will be seen that McLyman's majority over Rorick is 3,599, and that of Ramey over Laskey 3,563. Their pluralities are respectively 3,050 and 3,012.

Civil Service Reform.

It is with pain, says the San Francisco News-Letter, that we have to announce that under the Pendleton civil service reform bill provisions we competed this week for a position as stamp-licker in the postoffice. The pain comes in because we were ignominiously unsuccessful, although there were only forty-five candidates. We were caught on the fly, as it were, in geography, when the examiner asked us what was the population of San Marino, in the Apennine Mountains, we answered

3,452,816 for a bluff guess, but he would not have it, and remarking that there was only forty-six people since the hog cholera broke out, cheerfully signaled the way out at the back door. Such are the perils of competitive examinations.

Clerk of the House of Representatives.

There is not in all the State a gentleman more deserving of the Clerkship of the next House of Representatives, or one more competent to discharge the duties it involves, acceptably, than Mr. Thomas Coughlin, of Cincinnati.—Bellevue Examiner.

True, every word of it, Bro. Hubbard. Mr. Coughlin, outside of his being one of the old simon-pure Democrats, always ready and willing to sacrifice self-interest for the good of his party, has the highest qualifications for the position, a position which in years gone by he filled with honor to himself and his party. As our readers well know he was our predecessor in the proprietorship of the DEMOCRATIC NORTHWEST, and who, in partnership with the lamented William Hubbard, gave the paper more than a State reputation. He was also for years editor of the Bucyrus Forum. We hope to chronicle the selection of Mr. Coughlin for the position to which he aspires.

An Important Decision.

The most important decision made for years was announced by the Supreme Court of the United States on Monday of last week, declaring the celebrated Civil Rights law contrary to the Constitution of the United States, and therefore void. The decision, in effect, is that the States have the legitimate duty of protecting the citizen in his life, liberty and property (which embraces almost all subjects of legislation,) and that the thirteenth and fourteenth amendments, confers no such power on Congress, as the thirteenth refers to slavery only, and the fourteenth is a prohibition on the action of States. The decision is a rather clean cut State Rights document.

The colored men, however, need not fear anything from the decision. They will still have the rights any other citizen possesses, and their standing will be the result of individual conduct.

We find the following in the last number of the Fostoria Democrat:

Special notice to the Republicans, Democrats, Greenbackers, Prohibitionists, Mossbackers and Grangers of Seneca county: Having retired from politics, I intend to devote my whole time to my business in Fostoria. The public will soon find me at my old stand, and returning thanks for previous favors I hope for a continuance of their patronage. Prints, 9 cents a yard; 16 yards Cotton, $1.00; 9 lbs Sugar, $1.00; everything else in proportion.

Highest market price for Butter, Eggs, etc.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES FOSTER.

THE irrepressible Dabzell has made a forecast of the coming presidential campaign. He concedes that "Ohio is preeminently a Democratic State," and argues that that fact will, in spite of his preference for Tilden, force Hoadly to the front and make him the Democratic nominee. As to his own party the Private plaintively says:

"The Republicans will present no one. How could they, when in 1882 and again in 1883 Ohio went Democratic? Ohio must be modest in 1884. She must take a back seat in the Republican convention of 1884, and if disaster does not overtake and overwhelm us, Sherman, the general, and Lincoln must head the Republican ticket in 1884."

THAT was a very happy epigrammatic expression of a current, practical, and profound political truth by Senator Pendleton at Columbus Friday: "The Democratic party must live because it deserves to live, as the Republican party is dying because it deserves to die." It would be well for every Democrat, and especially for every Democratic legislator, whether friendly to Pendleton or not, to paste that in his hat. If Democracy would live, it must deserve to live; proof of it is found in the dying condition of the Republican party because it has deserved to die. Democrats have it in their own hands.—News Journal.

THE Hon. G. H. Barger, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, has declared publicly that the Executive Committee had not received a dollar from the East, and denied that a dollar had been given it by the liquor interest to corrupt voters. On the other hand the Republican Committee spent thousands of dollars in the large cities to corrupt voters, they believing that prohibition in the country districts would see them through without the aid of money.

A CLERK in the Pension office has suggested a system of weather signals in the country for the benefit of farmers. It consists of signal flags, to be known as "farmers' signal flags," to be displayed from the sides of the United States mail cars. The flags will signal information as follows: A white flag meaning clear weather, blue flag fair weather, red doubtful weather, and black stormy weather or high winds.

"THE Supreme Court must go!" Bob Ingersoll has said it, and the Harrisburg Telegraph chimes in "freedom is not and can not be made safe in the United States as long as we have a supreme court." The chief obstacle in the way of this new departure is the country's decision that the Republican party must go.—News Journal.

MALARIA.

[Youngstown Saturday Night.]

My son is far too sad to sing.
What doleful thoughts returns can bring.
My stomach won't hold any thing.
I think it's lost its puckering string.
It's bustled hot in tone and ring.
My eyes assume a glassy stare.
Malaria! Oh, Malaria!

This thing has got us by the hair,
And seems disposed to hold us square.
I thought they'd pull us through with prayer,
I fear they've closed up "Over There!"
My eyes assume a glassy stare.
Malaria! Oh, Malaria!

I wonder if this thing is just,
Some by-gone sins for which we're cursed,
It's sold on a bowel thrust—
Jerusalem! I think I must—
Joy, Sherman! Hasn't something burst?
Malaria! Oh, Malaria!

I've gathered up a pile of pence,
Our g. o. p. was so immense,
And now it seems I'm going hence—
What makes my sorrow more intense,
Is that I didn't meet my foes,
Malaria! Oh, Malaria!

To Washington I may not go,
I'll measure in another row,
I have a country store, you know,
I'll take delight in how to show—
"Prey pardon, how much calves?"
Malaria! Oh, Malaria!

THE death of General Steedman will recall to the mind of many Democrats of Ohio a scene that occurred at the Democratic State Convention at Columbus in 1870. The Opera House was crowded to overflowing by delegates and spectators. The stage was jammed with reporters and officers. Some persons were standing on some benches in the rear of the stage, when they gave way, and the impression became general that the floor was giving away, and a scene of wild excitement occurred, a rush being made to the door by hundreds, and there was a panic which had it not been for the indomitable courage of the now dead hero, there would have been a terrible loss of life. He was President of the convention. Taking in the situation at a glance, he stepped to the front, and with his cane rapped for "Order! Order!" and in his imperious and commanding manner, with his eye on the trembling leader of the band in the gallery, cried out: "The band will play." The musicians at once commenced, and although for a moment or two there was but little harmony in the notes, quiet was soon restored. Those who were present will never forget the General's appearance that day, and the fire that flashed from his eye as he faced a danger that made most all others quail.—Plain Dealer.

THE New York clerks in the executive departments, despite the Civil Service law, are in receipt of a circular from the State Committee which says: "We therefore appeal to you, solely as a public-spirited citizen desiring the supremacy of the Republican party, for such substantial aid as you feel you can and ought to give, and at the same time beg to assure you that the contributions thus made will be judiciously disbursed in defraying the necessary and lawful expenses of the campaign."

GOV. HOADLY is in Philadelphia for quiet rest. He will remain there a few weeks, or until he is entirely recovered.

HOADLY'S plurality over Foraker is 12,529. His majority over all is 1,443.

TEN thousand people perished in the earthquake on the southern coast of the Gulf of Smyrna last week, and twenty thousand more have been rendered homeless. The houses nearly all fell with the first shock, and the inmates were crushed and buried under the ruins. The survivors fled to the fields, where they still remain without food and suffering from cold. The Porte makes an urgent appeal for the sufferers.

THE Mansfield Banner says that the friends of Judge George W. Geddes will present his name as a candidate for United States Senator before the Democratic legislative caucus. With such timber to select from as Thurman, Pendleton, Ward, Converse, Geddes, etc., Democrats can rest assured that a good man will be selected.

Two Justices of the Supreme Court (a minority of the Bench,) three Judges of the Supreme Court Commission and one member of the Board of Public Works will constitute the Republican forlorn hope in the State House after January next. Every Department and every Board will be under control of Democrats.

THE 8th of November has been pronounced by the Mohammedan prophets as the last day of the world, and proclamations have been issued from Mecca and circulated throughout Mohammedan countries warning the faithful to prepare for the end. It is said to reflect that all this bother over the Ohio election was for nothing.

WHEN Ohio goes Democratic on the eve of a Presidential election, says the Boston Traveller, it is time for the Republican party to begin to think of the hereafter.

THE official vote of Hamilton county is in at last, and shows a total of 60,830, out of which the Second Amendment received but 8,402 votes.

A Brave Lady.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Lake, Tazewell Co., N. Y., cast the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health seriously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said: "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York.

NOTICE.

SUSIA J. RICHARDS and Joseph Richards of the State of Michigan, will take notice that William H. Fuller, cashier of the Commercial Bank, Delphos, Ohio, for the said bank, did on the 13th day of October A. D. 1883, file his petition in the court of common pleas within and for the county of Henry in the State of Ohio, against said Susia J. Richards and Joseph Richards, defendants, setting forth that the said Susia J. Richards and Joseph Richards gave a mortgage to the said William H. Fuller, cashier as aforesaid, on the following described real estate situated in the said county of Henry, and State of Ohio, to-wit:

Commencing at the north-east corner of lot number one hundred and seventy-three (173) in the town of Hoagist; thence running southerly forty-nine and one-half feet; thence at right angles westerly one hundred and thirty-two feet through the center of lot number one hundred and seventy-three and one hundred and seventy-four; to the west line of said lot number one hundred and seventy-four; thence northerly on the west line of said lot number one hundred and seventy-four, forty-nine and one-half feet, to the north-west corner of said lot number one hundred and seventy-four; thence at right angles easterly on the north line of said lot number one hundred and seventy-three and one hundred and seventy-four, to the place of beginning; the said being the north halves of said lots number one hundred and seventy-three and one hundred and seventy-four, in said town of Hoagist, county and State aforesaid, to secure certain notes referred to in said mortgage; also setting forth that said Susia J. Richards and Joseph Richards, at the time of the execution of said mortgage executed and delivered to said William H. Fuller, cashier, their contract in writing, and making the amount due under said last named contract a lien on the said above described lands. The prayer of the said petition is that the said Susia J. Richards and Joseph Richards may pay the sum claimed to be due on the first cause of action set forth in said petition, amounting to $144.50, with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, from the 26th day of November, 1872, and the sum claimed to be due on the third cause of action set forth in said petition amounting to the sum of $30.00, with interest thereon from the 15th day of November, 1882, or that said premises may be sold to pay the same; and the said Susia J. Richards and Joseph Richards are notified that they are required to appear and answer said petition on or before the third Saturday after the twenty-ninth day of October next.

Dated October 18th, 1883.
